

How to reach Wageningen from Schiphol Airport

To reach Wageningen from Schiphol Airport you will take a train until Ede-Wageningen train Station and then a taxi or a bus to your location in Wageningen. Follow the instructions below.

- There is free wifi at the airport and inside the train.

At Schiphol Airport

Arriving at Schiphol airport, you first pass through Immigration, and then collect your luggage. Before doing so, it is advisable to change your foreign currency into Euros at one of the banks (grenswisselkantoren). The banks at Schiphol Airport are open every day, including Sundays.

After collecting your luggage and (if applicable) exchanging money, pass through Customs, enter Arrivals and follow the signs from Schiphol Arrival Hall to the Railway Station: "to the trains". The train station is located inside the airport. At the train station you can purchase a ticket to Ede-Wageningen from one of the yellow vending machines, or at the Service Desk.

To check-in (activate your ticket), press your ticket against one of the yellow posts that are dotted around the arrivals hall.

Train from Schiphol Airport to Ede-Wageningen

Trains depart from Schiphol Airport to Ede-Wageningen every 15 minutes. The best option is to get the direct train from Schiphol to Ede-Wageningen (every 30 minutes). This is the Intercity train to Nijmegen city (pronounced 'Naimegen'). Drop off at Ede-Wageningen Station. Travel takes one hour and the train stops at four stations before reaching Ede-Wageningen (=fifth station). Inside the train you will find a screen with the itinerary and time of arrival at the different stations. Your final stop is Ede-Wageningen.

Another option is to change trains in Utrecht (every 15 minutes). Take the Intercity to Utrecht, drop off at Utrecht station, switch to a train in the direction of Arnhem or Nijmegen. Then, drop off at Ede-Wageningen station. Travel takes 1 hour. Your final stop is Ede-Wageningen. Check train timetables at the website ns.nl.

From Ede-Wageningen to Wageningen

When you get to Ede-Wageningen train station, follow the stairs down and turn right. Outside the station you will find taxis and buses. When you are going to the WICC you best take the bus. Buses are easy to travel with and comfortable. You can pay cash to the driver, or use the ticket card in case you have one. Make sure to have some small change, as notes of €50 might not be accepted.
